

Recognised Centre Requirements

The 1st4sport Recognised Centre Requirements set out the arrangements for the regulation of our qualifications within our recognised centres. As an awarding body, we must adhere to the regulations established by the regulatory authorities and, in turn, centres must also comply with their criteria. The requirements are a summary of such criteria, written in the context of the way we feel it will assist in the quality management of our qualifications.

The requirements have been developed to provide you with an understanding of the level of compliance you must be prepared to undertake with regards to both the vocationally and occupationally and consist of criteria related to:

- quality management systems
- qualification delivery
- qualification assessment
- internal verification and moderation.

To review the breadth of the criteria you are required to comply with please read the 1st4sport recognised Centre Requirements.
