Developed in partnership with sports coach UK and supported by SkillsActive and Lifelong Learning UK (LLUK), the 1st4sport Level 3 Certificate in Internal Verification Practice in Sport is designed to qualify your educator workforce (which might include coaches, match officials, those involved in sports development, outdoor education or sports students) to internally verify in total confidence, giving them everything they need to become a part of the education workforce legacy.

Designed for experienced assessors/sports professionals, this qualification provides an introduction to the processes and principles of the internal verification of sports-related vocational qualifications. Those who qualify will be eligible, alongside their sport-specific and occupational competences, to internally verify sport-specific, vocationally related qualifications. The qualification is designed not only to test the internal verifier's understanding of their role, but also to ensure they have the appropriate technical understanding at the correct level and know how to verify the assessments made by assessors, so it typically can be used as a stepping stone to deployment within governing bodies of sport to support the quality assurance of their UK Coaching Certificate (UKCC) coach education training programmes.

Who is the Qualification for?

Anyone over 18 years of age who wishes to be involved in the internal verification of vocational qualifications in sport. Assessors who are particularly passionate about maintaining the healthy nature of sport may see it as an ideal opportunity for their continued professional development (CPD) and as a way to further develop their skills in the area of verifying. Students in further or higher education, studying sports-related qualifications, may wish to pursue this qualification to further progress their careers.
